BYLAWS
OF THE
UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA WOMEN'S CLUB

ARTICLE I

NAME OF ORGANIZATION

The name of this organization is the University of Minnesota Women's Club. Hereinafter it shall be known as UMWC.

ARTICLE II

PURPOSE

The purpose of UMWC is to link the University community across individual schools and colleges, to give University scholarships, to promote educational, charitable, cultural and recreational endeavors, and to promote friendships.

ARTICLE III

LOCATION

The principal office of UMWC, at which the general business of the organization will be transacted and where the records of the organization will be kept, shall be at such location in the metropolitan area of Minneapolis-St. Paul, State of Minnesota, as may be fixed from time to time by the Governing Board of UMWC.

ARTICLE IV

MEMBERSHIP

There shall be four classes of membership. Membership is contingent upon payment of dues as specified in the Bylaws.

Section 1. Active. All women interested in the purposes and activities of the University of Minnesota, including persons in the community who are sponsored by University affiliated Club members, may become active members. Active status is required for membership in interest sections of UMWC.

Section 2. Associate. A member may become an associate when she chooses not to participate in interest sections. She will continue to receive newsletters, yearbook and other mailings, but voting privileges will not be extended. Male faculty and staff having a rank equivalent to instructor or above are eligible for associate membership.

Section 3. Honorary. Honorary membership shall be extended to: the wife of the president of the University, the wives of former presidents of the University, women members and the wives of members of the Board of Regents, and the wife of the Governor of Minnesota.

Section 4. International Women Visitors. International women visitors associated with the University are welcome to participate in UMWC activities with guest membership for one year. They may become active members upon payment of dues as specified in these Bylaws.

ARTICLE V

MEETING OF MEMBERS

Section 1. Presiding Officer. The President of the Board of UMWC shall be the presiding officer of all meetings of the membership. In the absence of the President, the President-Elect shall preside. In the absence of both persons, the members may elect a Chair Pro Tem for that one meeting.

Section 2. Notice of Meetings. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to mail a notice of each annual, regular and special meeting, stating the purpose thereof, as well as the time and place where the meeting is to be held. The notices of such meetings shall be sent so as to be received at least seven (7) calendar days, but not more than forty-five (45) days prior to such meetings.

Section 3. Quorum. Except as otherwise provided by statute or these Bylaws, the presence, at any time, of ten percent (10%) or forty (40) members, whichever is less, of the active members of record shall constitute a quorum.

Section 4. Voting. Each active member shall be entitled to cast one vote on each question. The vote of the majority of those members present shall decide any questions brought before the meeting, unless the question is one upon which, by law or by these Bylaws, a different vote is required, in which case such express provisions shall govern and control. No voting by proxy shall be permitted at meetings of the membership.

Section 5. Members List For Meetings. After fixing a record date for notice of and voting at a meeting, which shall not be more than 60 days before the meeting, the President shall direct the Secretary to prepare an alphabetical list of the names and addresses of all members who are entitled to notice and to vote. Said list shall be available for inspection by members, beginning two working days after the meeting notice is given and continuing through the meeting, at the principal office of UMWC or at a reasonable place identified in the meeting notice. The total membership list shall also be available at the meeting.

Section 6. Guests. Members may bring guests to any meeting of UMWC not declared closed by the Board.

ARTICLE VI

GOVERNING BOARD

Section 1. Government. The elected officers of UMWC shall be a President, a President-Elect, two Vice-Presidents for Program (elected in alternate years), Secretary, Treasurer and Co-Treasurer. The UMWC Governing Board (the Board of Directors) shall consist of the elected officers together with the Corresponding Secretary, the Historian, the Chairs of all sections, and the Chairs of Standing and Special committees.

Section 2. Governing Powers. The Governing Board shall have all the powers and duties necessary or appropriate for the overall direction of UMWC. It may engage in such acts and do such things as are not prohibited by law or these Bylaws.

Section 3. Vacancies. A vacancy of an officer on the Governing Board shall be filled by a vote of the majority of the remaining members of the Board. Each person so elected shall hold that position until a successor is elected by the members at the next annual meeting. In the case of an appointment by the Governing Board to fill an unexpired term, that appointed officer, when she has completed that term, shall be eligible for election to any vacant office or to one more two-year term.

The President shall appoint another committee chair if a vacancy occurs. If a vacancy occurs for a section chair, she may be replaced by members of that section at their next regular meeting.

Section 4. Duties of Officers. The officers shall perform the duties customary to their respective offices and such other duties as are specified in these Bylaws.

Section 5. Removal of Member of the Governing Board. At any annual or duly called special meeting of the membership, any officer or member of the Board may be removed with or without cause by a vote of the majority of the entire voting members of record. An officer may then and there be elected to fill the vacancy thus created. In the case of a committee chair, the President may appoint another chair. A section chair may be elected at their next meeting by members of that section. Any Board member whose removal has been proposed shall be given at least thirty (30) days' notice of the intent to take such action and an opportunity to be heard at this meeting.

Section 6. Compensation. No compensation shall be paid to Board members for their services to UMWC. Board members may be reimbursed for actual expenses incurred by them in the performance of regular or special duties.

Section 7. UMWC Meetings. Unless otherwise ordered by the Governing Board, there shall be no fewer than three meetings during the year. The first meeting shall be in honor of the women who have recently become eligible to membership in the Club. The annual business meeting shall be held in the spring.

Section 8. Board Meetings. The Governing Board shall hold regular meetings to transact the business and to determine the policies of UMWC. These are customarily held on the first Tuesday of each month. The Board shall present to the members for their approval an annual budget, which may include a miscellaneous fund to be used at the discretion of the Board.

Section 9. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Governing Board may be called by the President with at least seven (7) calendar days' notice to each Board member. This notice shall be given personally, by mail, or by telephone. The notice shall state the place, time and the purpose of the meeting. The Secretary of UMWC in like manner and in like notice shall call a special meeting upon the written request of at least three members of the Governing Board.

Section 10. Quorum. A majority of the Board members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Section 11. Proxies. No voting by proxy shall be permitted in the meetings of the Governing Board of UMWC.

Section 12. Robert's Rules of Order Revised will be the authority for all questions and procedures at any meetings of UMWC, unless otherwise provided.

ARTICLE VII

OFFICERS

Section 1. Honorary President. The wife of the President of the University shall be Honorary President of UMWC.

Section 2. Nomination and Election of Officers. A nominating committee of five members shall be appointed by the President and approved by the Board; this committee shall remain in existence until another one is appointed the following year. The committee shall nominate one candidate for each office to be filled. The names of the candidates shall be sent to each member of UMWC not less than ten days in advance of the annual meeting. Further nominations may be made from the floor at the annual meeting. Election shall be by ballot whenever nominations are made from the floor. Only active members in good standing may vote. Upon completion of their term, the officers elected by UMWC shall be eligible for reelection to a second term or election to any other vacant office.

Section 3. President. The President shall be the principal officer of the corporation. Subject to the direction and control of the Board, the President shall see that the resolutions and directives of the Board are carried into effect, and in general, shall discharge all duties incident to the office of President and as prescribed by the Board. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Governing Board, the Executive Committee, and at all meetings of the membership, except in those instances in which the authority to execute is expressly delegated to another officer or agent of the corporation. The President may execute for the corporation all contracts, deeds, conveyances, mortgages, bonds, and other instruments in writing that may be required or authorized by the Governing Board. The President shall be a voting ex officio member of all Board committees except the Nominating Committee.

Section 4. President-Elect. It will be the duty of the President-Elect to act in the absence or disability of the President and to perform such duties as may be assigned to her by the President.

Section 5. Two Vice-Presidents for Program. The two Vice-Presidents for Program shall plan and execute all of the social events for members, dividing their responsibilities as equitably as possible.

Section 6. Secretary. The Secretary of UMWC shall be responsible for keeping the organization's records. She shall keep or cause to be kept the minutes of all meetings of the Governing Board, of the membership, and of the Executive Committee. The Secretary shall give or cause to be given all notices of the meetings of the Board of Directors and other notices required by law or by these Bylaws. The Secretary shall be responsible for the keeping of all books, correspondence, committee minutes and papers relating to the business of UMWC, except those of the Treasurer.

Section 7A. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall be responsible for preparation of the proposed annual budget and shall keep or cause to be kept financial records belonging to UMWC. The Treasurer shall present to the membership at the annual meeting a report of the finances of UMWC and shall from time to time make other financial reports to the Governing Board as it may require.

Section 7B. Co-Treasurer There shall be a Co-Treasurer elected to serve as keeper of Records and Dues. This position can be terminated at any time that a majority of the voting members vote to have another means of keeping Records and Dues. Read job description of Records and Dues.

Section 8. Special Appointments. The President shall appoint a Corresponding Secretary and an Historian annually..

Section 9. Term of Office. Officers shall be elected for a term of two years, except that the President-Elect shall serve the first year as President-Elect and the succeeding year as President. The Treasurer shall be elected for one year, with the understanding that she will serve as Chair of the Finance Committee the following year. One Vice-President and the Secretary shall be elected in the odd years; and a second Vice-President in the even years; the President-Elect and the Treasurer shall be elected every year.

Section 10. Any officer of UMWC, in addition to powers conferred on her by these Bylaws, will have such additional powers and perform such additional duties as may be prescribed from time to time by the Governing Board.

ARTICLE VIII

COMMITTEES

1. Authority. The Governing Board may act by and through such committees as may be specified in resolutions adopted by a majority of the members of the Governing Board. Each such committee shall have such duties and responsibilities as are granted to it from time to time by the Governing Board. Each such committee shall at all times be subject to the control and direction of the Governing Board.

Section 2. Executive Committee. The elected officers of the Club shall constitute the Executive Committee. This committee may serve in place of the Governing Board on call of the President. No individual shall continue to be a member of the Executive Committee after she ceases to be an officer of UMWC.

Section 3. Powers. The Executive Committee may serve in place of the Governing Board on the call of the President. Actions taken by the Executive Committee shall be reported to the Governing Board and recorded.

Section 4. Standing committees. The President shall appoint the chairs of the standing committees, except for the Finance Committee. The standing committees shall be: House, Finance, Scholarship, Auditing, Membership, Publications, and such other committees as from time to time may be considered necessary. Each chair shall appoint her own committee with the advice of the President. The Chairs of the standing committees shall be members of the Governing Board. The dissolution of any such standing committee shall be accomplished by a resolution of a majority of the Board as a whole.

Section 5. Term of Office. Term of office for standing committee chairs shall be for two years, except for the Finance Committee, which is for one year. Appointments shall be rotated, so that each president shall share this responsibility. In the even years the committee chairs to be appointed are: Benefit, Dayton Scholarship, Hospitality for International Women Visitors, Membership, and Community Relations. In the odd years committee chairs to be appointed are: Auditing, Conversations with Women Leaders, House, Publications, and Scholarship. Reappointment is permissible.

ARTICLE IX

SECTIONS OF UMWC

Only active members of UMWC are entitled to membership in any section.

1. Any group of ten or more members may, upon recommendation by the Board and authorization by UMWC, organize as a section of UMWC.

2. A section may divide at its own discretion.

3. Dues shall be assessed each member of a section

4. No person may serve as chair of a section more than two consecutive years.

5. No person may hold more than one section chair in a given year.

6. Members of the University Hospital and Clinic Auxiliary section are not required to pay UMWC dues unless they wish to attend another UMWC section; in that case they are required to pay the dues for active members of UMWC.

ARTICLE X

REPORTS

The Chair of each section and of each committee shall submit a written report to the President not later than the Board meeting which precedes the annual meeting. These reports shall be included in the bound volume of UMWC records compiled by the President at the end of her term of office.

The Treasurer of UMWC shall make reports to the Governing Board at its regular meetings and a report to UMWC at its annual meeting. All general UMWC funds shall be audited annually by a committee appointed by the President, and a report given to the Governing Board at the first meeting in the Fall.

ARTICLE XI

FISCAL MANAGEMENT

Section 1. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of UMWC shall begin on the first day of July in each year.

Section 2. Dues. The annual dues for active and associate membership shall be set by the Governing Board. The associate dues shall be no more than 65 percent of active membership dues.

Only the names of those whose dues are paid at the close of the academic year shall appear in the yearbook.

Notification of annual dues shall be sent to members in the annual Yearbook, arriving at the end of July. Payments are due immediately. A second notice will be sent in early October, urging all late payments to be made by October 30. If dues are still unpaid by November 15, the member will be considered delinquent and her name will be dropped from the roster.

The name of a member on leave of absence shall be carried in the yearbook for the year following the leave, and the membership notice sent as usual.

Section 3. Books and Accounts. Books and accounts of UMWC shall be kept under the direction of the Treasurer of UMWC.

Section 4. Loans. No loans shall be contracted on behalf of UMWC nor evidences of indebtedness shall be issued in its name unless authorized by resolution of the Board of Directors. Such authority shall be general or confined to specific instances.

Section 5. Deposits. All funds of UMWC not otherwise employed shall be deposited from time to time to the credit of UMWC in such bank or banks or other depositories as the Board of Directors may elect.

Section 6. Conflict of Interest. The Board shall not enter into any contract or transaction with (a) one or more of its Board members, (b) a director of a related organization or (c) an organization in or of which a UMWC Board member is a director, officer or legal representative, or in some other way has a material financial interest unless:

- 1) That interest is disclosed or known to the Governing Board,
- 2) The Board approves, authorizes or ratifies the action in good faith,
- 3) The approval is by a majority of Board members (not counting the interested Board member), and
- 4) Approval is given at a meeting where a quorum is present (not counting the interested Board member).

The interested Board member may be present for discussion to answer questions, but may not advocate for the action to be taken and must leave the room while a vote is taken. The minutes of all actions taken on such matters shall clearly reflect that these requirements have been met.

Section 7. Checks, Drafts, Etc. All checks, drafts and other orders for payment of funds will be signed by such Officers or such other persons as the Governing Board shall designate in its approved financial policies.

Section 8. Indemnity. UMWC shall indemnify and hold harmless any officer or Board member from any suit, damage, claim, judgment or liability arising out of, or asserted to arise out of, conduct of such person in her capacity as a Board member or officer except in cases involving willful misconduct. Indemnification provided under this section shall comply with and follow the requirements as provided by statute. The Governing Board shall have the power to purchase or procure insurance for such purposes.

Section 9. Examination by Board Members. Every member of the Governing Board shall have a right to examine, in person or by agent or attorney, at any reasonable time or times, and at the place or places where usually kept, all books and records of UMWC and make extracts or copies therefrom.

ARTICLE XII

AMENDMENTS

The membership shall have the power to amend the Articles of Incorporation and these Bylaws. Subject to restrictions imposed by statute, the Board may amend the Articles and Bylaws by adopting a resolution setting forth the amendment, providing written notice of the proposed amendments at least fifteen (15) calendar days prior to a duly called meeting. Such amendment shall require an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members present at a duly constituted meeting.
